

Per the OJPP Grief/Loss policy, this service is added upon notification of the client's passing. Case note should contain information on how the team was informed of the passing, any appropriate details of the situation, and the date the morbidity and mortality review will take place.