

A HARD LINKAGE is when the Case Manager calls, emails, or reaches out to an organization on behalf of a client to begin the referrals process. Please include who you contacted and the outcome of the conversation. If an appointment has been set, please include the information in the case notes.