

Record the name of the treatment provider, the name and contact information of the individual you spoke with, and the purpose/outcome of the call in the case note. Only one successful treatment provider contact should be recorded per day.